Associated Students of Lewis & Clark

Student Senate 2010-2011

Senate Resolution No. FA10 SR008

A Companion Resolution Regarding Hate at Lewis & Clark

Whereas, ASLC has a vested interest in mitigating the effects of hate and the portrayal of hateful concepts at Lewis & Clark, and

Whereas, ASLC desires to be proactive in combating hate at Lewis & Clark, and

Whereas, the fear that denying certain frustrated voices from the political process by pure admonishment could strengthen the painful impact of hate and hateful messages, and

Whereas, ASLC values all the voices it represents in the political process, therefore

Be it resolved by the Senate of the Associated Students of Lewis & Clark here assembled that ASLC will act as a resource for frustrated voices in the Lewis & Clark community and show them that their frustrations can be heard and their goals can be achieved in the Lewis & Clark community through the political processes and resources that Lewis & Clark provides to all students, thereby mitigating the pain and circumventing the painful healing process the Lewis & Clark community must experience every time a hateful message with the purpose of shocking and hurting Lewis & Clark community members is displayed.
