

Templeton Scholars Program Personal Statement

The personal statement is an important component of your application. You should carefully consider the words that will distinguish you from other high achievers. We welcome you to submit any additional materials (examples of writing or creative work) that you think will help the committee in consideration of your application. As always, this statement should be typewritten. You may use separate sheets of paper.

Please describe your academic experience in high school and explain how coursework at Lewis & Clark College will relate to your goals for the future.

My signature below indicates that all information contained in my application is complete, factually correct and honestly presented.

Signature

Date

Lewis & Clark College adheres to a nondiscriminatory policy with respect to employment, enrollment, and program. The college does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, creed, religion sex, national origin, handicap or disability, sexual orientation, marital status and has a firm commitment to promote the letter and spirit of all equal opportunity and civil rights laws.