

CAREERS FOR BIOLOGISTS

Agriculture/horticulture/plants:

Nursery business (ornamental plants, native plants)	Fruitgrowing
Landscape design/landscape maintenance	Organic farming
Farming	Plant breeding
Forestry

Animals:

Animal breeding	Dairy farming
Animal husbandry	Ranching
Animal training	Veterinary science
Aquaculture	Wildlife medicine
Commercial fishing	Zookeeping

Business/industry:

Biological supply house	Fishing
Scientific equipment sales	Forestry
Textbook sales	Patent law/product liability law
Editor	Pharmaceutical sales
Food processing, quality control	Technology consulting/transfer
Venture capital work for biotechnology firms

Education: (see also Museums)

Environmental education	Professor at college or university
Health education (see health sciences)	Secondary school teacher

Environment:

Activism	Administration
Artist	Grantwriting
Attorney	Land manager
Bioremediation	Lobbying
Environmental consulting	Toxicology
Environmental engineer	Environmental ethics
Environmental health and safety management
Environmental tourism (leading tours, operating company, guiding)
Fundraising for environmental foundations
Monitoring compliance with regulations for utilities, industry
Natural resource planning for city, county, state, federal govt.
Researcher/scientist with private environmental foundation
Researcher/scientist with federal, state, local agencies

Food Industry

Farming	Winemaking/beer-making
Food Processing/Product Development

Freelance:

Artist	Photographer
Journalist	Scientific Illustration

Health Sciences:

Advocacy	Epidemiologist
AIDS education	Environmental health sciences
Biostatistician	Genetic counselor
Dentist	Health education
International public health	Lobbyist
Medical ethicist	Medical illustrator

Health Sciences cont'd.:

Nurse	Optometrist
Nutritionist	Pharmacist
Physical therapist	Physician's Assistant
Physician	Sports medicine
Community public health (e.g. in rural clinics, crisis centers, federal, state, and international agencies, migrant worker clinics, substance abuse centers)
Foundation administration (e.g. Amer. Heart Assn., Amer. Cancer Society)
Hospital/health services administration
Planned Parenthood, teenage pregnancy prevention programs, etc.
Public health practice/program management/ policy
Toxicology

Journalism/media:

Editing technical publications	Nature photography
Science writing	Technical writing
Filmmaking for businesses, foundations
Scientific/technical illustration/imaging

Museums/Aquaria/nonprofit foundations:

Environmental education	Manager of research station
Designing museum displays	Naturalist
Fundraising	Public relations
Illustrator	Researcher/scientist

Politics/Public Service

Lobbyist for industry or environmental organizations
Science adviser for congressperson

Research:

Biologist with state or federal agency
Environmental research (see Environment)
Professor at college or university
Researcher with private foundation or company
Technician or research assistant

Social Change:

AIDS activist, educator	Educator
Attorney	Peace Corps volunteer
Community/international public health
Environmental activist, attorney, educator, lobbyist, policymaker, researcher, writer	