Want to change the world?

Become an animal law attorney!

Lewis & Clark Law School is the leading animal law educational institution. Our students come from all over the world to take advantage of the unmatched learning experience we offer.

An animal law education is invaluable. Animal law encompasses all the traditional areas of law in addition to cutting-edge law and policy issues emerging in the field such as factory farming, criminal prosecutions, animal testing or the link between violence against animals and violence against humans.

In the course of your legal career, it is no longer a matter of if an animal law case crosses your desk. It is only a matter of when. Be prepared. Come to study at Lewis & Clark.

Law school path

CENTER FOR ANIMAL LAW STUDIES

AT LEWIS & CLARK

IN COLLABORATION WITH THE
ANIMAL LEGAL DEFENSE FUND

Creating the Next Generation of Animal Law Attorneys

Lewis & Clark Law School
10015 S.W. Terwilliger Blvd.
Portland, OR 97219
Phone: (503) 768-6960
Fax: (503) 768-6917
E-mail: cals@lclark.edu
Website: CenterForAnimalLawStudies.org
Blog: CenterForAnimalLawStudies.Blogspot
Facebook: Facebook.com/CALSAnimalLaw
Twitter: @CALSAnimalLaw

Printed on acid free, 100% post-consumer, recycled paper

Center for Animal Law Studies at Lewis & Clark,
in collaboration with the
Animal Legal Defense Fund

Creating the Next Generation of Animal Law Attorneys

2013 Summer Intensive
Animal Law Program

www.CenterForAnimalLawStudies.org

cals@lclark.edu

Animal Law at Lewis & Clark

For almost twenty years, Lewis & Clark Law School has been the home of the nation's premier animal law program. Our program features a challenging and diverse curriculum taught by renowned animal law scholars and practitioners, allowing students to learn from the very best.

At Lewis & Clark, we welcome summer visitors, including current practitioners, some legal assistants and Ph.D. students. We provide summer animal law students a unique experience unavailable at home institutions.

Our Backyard - Tryon Creek State Park

In addition, our program is all-inclusive, welcoming all perspectives regarding animal protection issues. We facilitate respectful, in depth discussions of difficult issues, creating a supportive environment for students both well-versed in animal law and those new to the field.

When not in the classroom, students enjoy the natural beauty of the Pacific Northwest. Within an hour or two of Portland are beachcombing and camping at the...

Law School Amphitheater

2013 Summer Course Offerings:

- Crimes Against Animals
   Visiting Professor Scott Heiser
   May 28 — June 10, 2 Credits
- Animal Law Litigation
   Visiting Professor Peter Brandt
   June 11 — June 24, 2 Credits
- Animal Legal Philosophy & Development
   Visiting Professor Ramona Ilea
   June 25 — July 8, 2 Credits
- Animal Rights Law & Jurisprudence
   Visiting Professor Steven Wise
   July 9 — July 22, 2 Credits
- Animal Law Policy (Pending)
   In D.C. with Professor Nancy Perry
   July 23 — August 5, 2 Credits

Classes may be taken for credit, as audit or as audit with a certificate. It is the decision of a student's home institution whether Lewis & Clark credit will be accepted toward their degree.

...Oregon coast, sightseeing or windsurfing in the spectacular Columbia River Gorge, hiking, camping, mountain climbing in the Mt. Hood National Forest or Coast Range, hot air ballooning, wine tasting in Oregon's finest wine country, plus spelunking and volcano-watching on Mount St. Helens.

For the most detailed and up-to-date information regarding courses, syllabi, faculty, tuition, registration, and on-campus housing, please visit our website.

Paul L. Boley Law Library

Visiting students should apply for financial aid at their home institutions as soon as possible.

Center for Animal Law Studies at Lewis & Clark, in collaboration with the Animal Legal Defense Fund

More Information available at: www.CenterForAnimalLawStudies.Org (Choose "Curriculum" on right-side menu)

Questions? ontact Laura Handzel at lhandzel@lclark.edu or (503) 768-6960.