- List all eligible out-of-pocket medical expenses for you, your spouse, and your dependents.
- Items that promote general good health, such as vitamins, supplements, weight loss programs, and massage, are ineligible without a doctor's prescription for the item to treat a specific medical condition.
- The full annual amount elected is available for eligible medical expenses incurred at any time during the plan year.

DEPENDENT CARE FSA

- A dependent receiving care must be a child under the age of 13, or a tax dependent unable to provide for their own care, who resides with you.
- The care must be necessary for you and your spouse (if married), to go to work or for your spouse's education.
- Care may be provided by anyone other than your spouse or your children under the age of 19.
- Expenses for schooling, kindergarten and above, overnight camp and nursing homes are not reimbursable.
- The maximum you can elect, in a calendar year, is equal to the smallest of the following:
 - $5,000 Married and filing federal taxes jointly or a single parent
 - $2,500 Married and filing a separate federal tax return
 - you or your spouse's earned income
- An employee with a disabled spouse or a spouse who is a full-time student can elect up to $250/month for one child and $500/month for two or more children.
- The amount contributed, up to the amount of your annual election, is available for reimbursement.
- Do not include medical expense amounts in the day care account box.
- All elected "Before-Tax" amounts are exempt from Federal, State, FICA, and Medicare taxes.
- "Before-Tax" elections may reduce future Social Security benefits.
- Be conservative in the amount of your election.
- Any amount that is not used during the plan year will revert to your employer.
- If you have a large expense coming up that you are not sure is reimbursable, call or email Allegiance at 1-877-424-3570 or Flex-inquire@askallegiance.com
