

*W*e invite you to consider the classic ambiance and prestige of a Lewis & Clark Estate Wedding.

Lewis & Clark has been located on the historic Fir Acres estate in Portland's southwest hills for more than 60 years. The historic, elegant, and incomparable gardens offer breathtaking romantic settings to beautifully reflect your style and the heritage and traditions of your families. Because of the unique nature of our landmark property we are limited to only a few wedding celebrations each year. Your wedding could be one of them. Create an idyllic lifetime memory of romance and elegance.

For more information, please read the information below and then contact one of our preferred wedding planners below, or have your qualified professional wedding planner contact us. Is there a particular outdoor location at Lewis & Clark for weddings and receptions?

Select outdoor garden areas are open for consideration, limited by logistics. The massed blooms of the Rose Garden; the stone steps above the reflection pool, the fountain area on the Great Platt lawn below the reflection pool, or intimate side lawns near the Great Platt lawn are the choices available to reflect your unique personalities and your families' traditions and heritage.

Are there any available spaces indoors for ceremonies?

Built in 1968 and updated in 2010, the Agnes Flanagan Chapel features a magnificent Casavant organ, seating for 500 people, and stained glass windows. The chapel renovations include a new, elevated stage, a sophisticated sound and lighting system, and ADA accessible restrooms.

Are there any available spaces indoors for receptions?

There are a few options for indoor weddings and other special events. Completed in 2011 and attached to the Agnes Flanagan Chapel, the Diane Gregg Pavilion provides a lovely setting for intimate sit-down meals for up to 72 guests and receptions for up to 200. Located in Templeton Campus Center and within short walking distance from the Agnes Flanagan Chapel, Stamm Dining Room offers plenty of room for a wedding reception up to 400 guests and a sit-down meal up to 162 guests.

Part of the historic estate, and renovated in 2003, Smith Hall is located in Albany Quadrangle. With a cobblestone walkway leading up to the entrance french doors, windows looking out towards the original estate orchard trees, hardwood flooring, chandelier lighting, support for audiovisual technology, and ADA accessible restrooms, this special venue provides a lovely setting for sit-down dinners for up to 120 guests.

Fees do not include catering, photography, music and entertainment, flowers, rentals, tents, supplemental security, if required, and cost of event planner.

What is the capacity?

Capacity varies depending on the selected location. Our outdoor locations are the largest and start with the Great Platt Field below the reflection pool, which can accommodate up to 800 guests. The flagpole terrace located behind the Great Platt Field can accommodate up to 200. The smaller areas, like the wisteria arbor above the reflection pool, are ideal for smaller, more intimate celebrations and can accommodate up to 82 guests for a ceremony and as much as 150 for a cocktail reception. If you would prefer to have your event indoors, our largest room can accommodate 162 guests.

May I tour the property to see the available locations? How do I book?

Yes. Qualified professional wedding planners may bring clients for escorted site visits, by appointment. All wedding events must be booked through a Qualified Professional Wedding Planners.

I already have a wedding planner. Do I still have to use one of yours?

We recommend the use of our Preferred Planners because they present the highest standards of event planning and fulfillment. However, if you prefer to use another planner, please have them review our Qualified Professional Wedding Planner Requirements and contact us directly for more information.

Am I restricted to any preferred caterers or vendors?

Lewis & Clark does have a preferred caterer and vendors. Please see our list of preferred caterers and vendors on the next page.

May I take my wedding photos at Lewis & Clark if I am getting married and having my reception elsewhere?

Yes. Wedding, engagement, family, and other portrait photography sessions of up to 3 hours may be scheduled; advance reservations are required. Location fees, permits, and certain restrictions apply. For details and fees contact events@lclark.edu (Lewis & Clark does not provide the photographer.)
