

Visiting Assistant Professor of Economics: Microeconomics and Related Fields

The Department of Economics at Lewis and Clark College invites applications for a one-year visiting position for the 2014-2015 academic year. Teaching responsibilities (5 courses) include principles of economics, intermediate microeconomics, and microeconomics-based field courses to be negotiated with the candidate. Include (1) a letter of application which includes a statement of teaching philosophy, teaching experience, and research interests; (2) a curriculum vitae; (3) evidence of teaching effectiveness; (4) graduate transcripts; and (5) two letters of recommendation. All materials must be submitted via Interfolio. (<http://apply.interfolio.com/23499>). Click "Apply" to create your free account. Review of applications begins on November 15 and continues until the position is filled. We will interview candidates at the ASSA meetings in Philadelphia.

Lewis & Clark College, located in Portland, OR, is an Equal Opportunity Employer. The College is committed to preparing students for leadership in an increasingly interdependent world, and affirms the educational benefits of diversity. (See <http://www.lclark.edu/dept/about/diversity.html>) The College will conduct background checks on the finalists for the position.