Kenya Legal Project Summer 2014 (3 credits)

Application Deadline: March 3, 2014

COURSE DETAILS:

www.kenyalegalproject.com

To be Eligible: The course is open to law students who have completed a course in animal law. U.S. lawyers, international lawyers or international law students with equivalent coursework or experience may apply.

Send all application materials & questions to both:

Kathy Hessler – khessler@lclark.edu Natasha Dolezal – ndolezal@lclark.edu

Name
Phone
Email Address
Mailing Address
	Degree/Year in School
Is this your first time studying abroad? Yes No (If no,	where did you study?)
How did you learn of the Kenya Legal Project?
Do you plan to take this course for Credit or _	Audit?
Do you plan to be in Portland to attend the two introd	uctory classes?
In addition, please attach and submit the following do	cuments via email.

- 1. Law school transcript
- 2. Resume
- 3. Statement of Interest Please address in 2 pages or less;
 - Your personal interest in the program,
 - Your experience traveling, studying abroad and dealing with culture differences,
 - Your experience in animal law and
 - Your ability to cope and adapt to changing circumstances, schedules, demands and expectations.

Program Costs

We received funding intended to cover airfare, room and board for $\underline{8}$ students (subject to increased costs). Park fees are not included (\sim \$300).

Students are responsible for their tuition, immunizations, anti-malarial medications and all travel incidentals.