

REVISITING THE TEACHER'S HEART: A RETREAT FOR NEW TEACHERS AND MENTORS WHO SUPPORT THEM

Thursday-Saturday, November 13-15, 2014
Menucha Conference and Retreat Center
Corbett, Oregon

Be patient toward all that is unsolved in your heart and try to love the questions themselves. . . . Live the questions now. Perhaps you will then gradually, without noticing it, live along some distant day into the answer.

Rainer Maria Rilke

Lewis & Clark will be sponsoring a Courage and Renewal retreat for new teachers in their first five years of teaching. We also welcome mentors, both designated and informal, who support beginning teachers. This retreat will engage participants in conversations that touch on the ideals and commitments that originally drew them to become professional educators and create a space in which people can explore the delights and frustrations they have encountered as new teachers, and as support for new teachers. Through incorporation of silence, reflection, and creative expression, the retreat will provide an opportunity for personal and professional growth.

The retreat will also provide opportunities to consider themes of early winter as reflected in the beautiful setting at Menucha Conference and Retreat Center on the Columbia River Gorge. Participants can elect to receive one semester hour of degree-applicable graduate credit or continuing education credit. Reservations accepted until July 31, 2014. Reservation information is on next page.

Where: Menucha Retreat and Conference Center, Creevey Commons, located in the Columbia River Gorge in Corbett, Oregon, twenty-two miles east of Portland
