1 NIKE ROSE CITY BASKETBALL SHOWCASE

JUNE 10-12, 2016

Organization: Nike

Background/Information: The inaugural adidas Rose City Showcase in 2003 was a three-day event averaging 700 fans daily including "Hoop Junkies" of all ages and from all parts of the Portland metro area to support Portland's own Inner City Players youth basketball programs. More than 50 volunteers worked nonstop to insure that all areas of the event and hospitality were executed efficiently and professionally.

The 2004 edition of the RCS continued to build the reputation of the tournament. The tournament was growing and the field of 8 top nationally recognized prep teams made up a field considered to be the most talented group of basketball players ever assembled in this Portland ever. The momentum continued in 2006 with top prospects like Kyle Singler (Duke), Kevin Love (UCLA), O.J. Mayo (USC) and Michael Beasley (Kansas State) in the running for tournament MVP.

By 2007 the Rose City Showcase was on the move to becoming one of the top invitational tournaments in the country. The tournament format expanded to cover 17U- 11U, which will began to bring some of the "NATIONS NEXT" to Portland to join the expanded, exclusive tournament. Players like Brandon Rush and Mario Chalmers, who led Kansas to the 2008 NCAA Championship, all had one thing in common - they participated in the Rose City Showcase.

By 2008 RCS participants included the likes of NBA players Dwight Howard (Orlando Magic), Josh Smith (Atlanta Hawks), Marvin Williams (Atlanta Hawks), Martell Webster (Portland Trailblazers), Randolph Morris (New York Knicks), and many more. Also in 2008 the field was expanded to include brackets for 9U and up.

By 2009 the classes of 2012 and 2013, including players like D'Vante Smith-Rivera, Trey Lyles, James Robinson, BeeJay Anya, Justin Anderson, Jamal Ferguson, Samuel Cassell, Aaron Parham, Roschon Prince, Torren Jones, Anthony January Jr. and Anrio Adams would leave their mark on the tournament. RCS IX also saw the debut of Nike as the title sponsor bring the "Oregon connection" full circle. The Rose City Showcase IX field included 144 of the top boys AAU teams ages 9U - 17U and continued the tradition of featuring the NATIONS NEXT on our exclusive Portland stage.

All Super 17's games were now being played at Lewis and Clark College. The other divisional games were played at Lewis & Clark College and Beaverton Hoop YMCA as the event expanded.

7 TRENCH CAMP

JULY 8-10, 2016

Organization: Trench Camp (Run by Chris Sulages of L&C)

Age Group: 6-13 years old

Background/Information: Trench Camp was started by former NFL players and parents who were tired of the “cookie cutter” process of many football camps. Most camps bring in hundreds of players at all positions and have them compete in all-day scrimmages. This has little benefit to the individual athlete other than learning repetition. Trench Camp focuses only on offensive and defensive linemen and we limit our enrollment. That means campers will have more time with our former NFL players and highly-trained coaching staff. It also means they’ll get one-on-one attention and exceptional feedback on form, technique and conditioning on the field. Our staff is also clearly superior to most camps. Our coaches have decades of NFL experience, Hall-of-Fame credentials and a passion for teaching the game the right way.

The coaches build character and confidence as they share about perseverance, teamwork, and goal setting. Olympic athletes will prepare campers for workouts, competitions, and setting goals for their track and field career.
