2013 Funding Application

Loan Repayment Assistance Program

Deadline April 22, 2013

Eligibility is based on the factors in the LRAP Program Description, which is incorporated by reference into this application. Applicants are responsible for understanding the terms and requirements in the Program Description.

Loan Repayment Assistance Program (LRAP) loans provide money to service eligible law-school educational loans. In addition to estimated income data required in this application, you will need to furnish supporting information (tax returns and a forgiveness application) after the end of the year for verification. Because awards are structured as forgivable loans, failure to complete the forgiveness application or failure to meet the income, employment, or other requirements could result in being required to partly or fully repay an award.

This Application is for an LRAP loan for calendar year 2013 (or the LRAP Year expressly determined by the applicant and the PILC). Completed applications and requested attachments must be received by Monday, April 22, 2013. Late applications may be considered at the committee's discretion.
