

April 23, 4:30-7:30 p.m., South Campus Conference Center

Dinner & refreshments
Connect with faculty
Network with alumni

Your choice of two lectures:

Mollie Galloway: Cheating

Mollie's interactive presentation will include a description of the most recent research on academic integrity and will offer practical research-based strategies to create school and classroom environments that counter cheating behavior and promote student learning and engagement. Mollie is the Director of Research & Assessment at the Graduate School. She is also the lead researcher for Challenge Success, a Stanford University-based intervention and research project.

Tatiana Melendez: Domestic Violence—An Exploration of Peruvian Women's Voices

Tatiana is a bilingual marriage and family therapist. She has practiced in hospitals and private clinics in Peru and in the U.S. Tatiana received her master in marriage and family therapy from the University of Connecticut.

