

RHYTHMS of CHANGE

Lewis & Clark College | 2nd Annual Ray Warren Multicultural Symposium | November 16-18, 2005

Join us as we explore and celebrate race, diversity, and culture.

Featured Events

Opening Session Ed Edmo

Playwright, Shoshone-Bannock Tribe Member, and Oregon Historical Society Speaker Ed Edmo will give an interactive performance of Northwest Native American stories.

Wednesday November 16, 3 p.m. Templeton Student Center, Council Chamber

Multicultural Alumni Panel

Looking Back: A Multicultural Alumni Perspective on the Rhythms of Change at Lewis & Clark College

Wednesday, November 16, 7 p.m. Templeton Student Center, Stamm Dining Room

Video Screening A Day Without a Mexican

“A Day Without a Mexican: Work, Racism, and the American Way”

Discussion led by Elliott Young, Associate Professor of History, Lewis & Clark College.

Thursday, November 17, 1 p.m. Templeton Student Center, Council Chamber

Keynote Address Ron Takaki

Professor of Ethnic Studies, University of California at Berkeley

“Why Multiculturalism Matters: A Vision of the Curriculum for the 21st Century”

Thursday, November 17, 7 p.m. Agnes Flanagan Chapel

Graduate School Panel

The Next Step: Diversity and the Graduate School Experience

Graduate students from diverse backgrounds discuss their experiences and share advice on how to prepare for and select a graduate program.

Friday, November 18, 1 p.m. Templeton Student Center, Stamm Dining Room

Race Monologues and Discussion

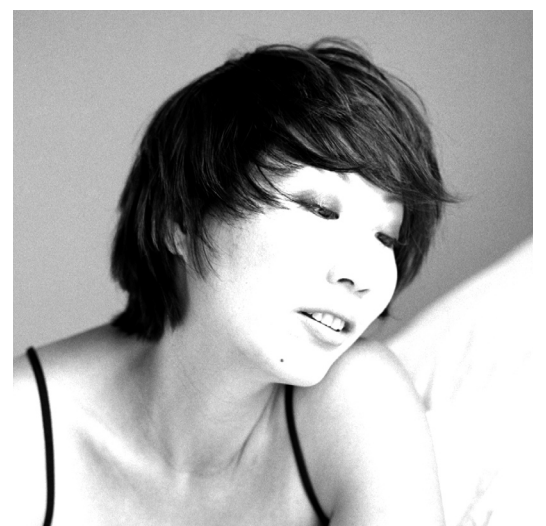

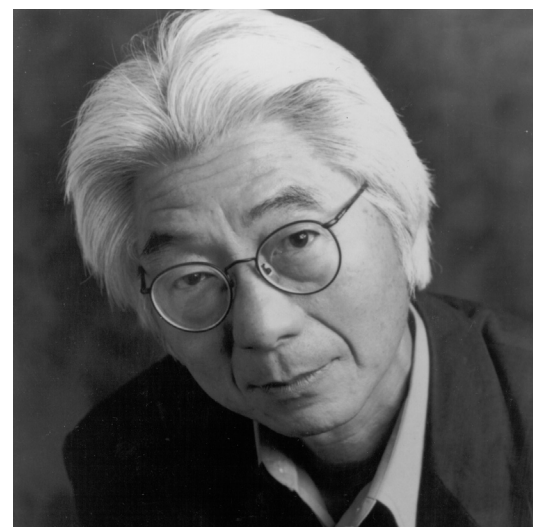

Lewis & Clark students of color express themselves and share their personal stories and experiences through speech, poetry, and spoken word.

Friday, November 18, 3 p.m. Templeton Student Center, Stamm Dining Room

Magdalen Hsu-Li

Asian American Singer-Songwriter, Painter, and Cultural Activist. Musical performance from Smashing the Ceiling.

Friday, November 18, 7 p.m. Agnes Flanagan Chapel

All events are free and open to the public. Daily visitor parking permits are available for $3 at the entrance marked Information. Parking is free after 7 p.m.

For more information, visit us at www.lclark.edu/dept/ethnic/multicultsymp.html or phone 503-768-7051.

Lewis & Clark
College

