A Day with the Oregon Court of Appeals

Friday, March 7, 2008

This program is designed for lawyers who do appellate litigation every day or only infrequently. Presented in a format that encourages questions and audience participation, Oregon Court of Appeals judges will talk about every aspect of the appeal. Veteran practitioners and newcomers alike will benefit from an insider's description of how the court really operates.

Those who attend will learn what to do and what not to do in an effective oral argument and what the judges look for in a brief. This promises to be an interesting, interactive, and informative day, an opportunity to meet the judges and network with your colleagues.

Earn an additional .5 MCLE credit for attending the luncheon presentation by Judges Ellen F. Rosenblum and Timothy J. Sercombe: "Perspectives from the Newer Judges."
