

Transformative Immigration Law Seminar

Application Process

Participation in the Transformative Immigration Law Seminar is limited to 12 students. Due to the enrollment limitation, we have instituted an application process. If you would like to apply, please submit the following to the Registrar's Office:

- a paragraph (or two) explaining why you want to participate in the seminar;
- transcript;
- writing sample (if you submit your appellate brief from legal writing, please submit only the portions you wrote);
- the name of your legal writing professor;
- an e-mail address and telephone number where we can reach you in June and July.

Deadline

You must submit your application by June 17, the first day of priority registration. Those selected to enroll will receive a notification by email that they may register for the course. Without professor approval you will be unable to register for the seminar.
