

Adjunct Faculty for Applied Lessons in Cello

Lewis & Clark College Department of Music invites applications for the position of Adjunct Faculty for Applied Lessons in Cello, to begin Fall semester 2015. Responsibilities will include teaching private lessons, cello recruiting, and participating in juries of cello students. Faculty may also be invited to coach orchestra sectionals (for additional pay). Adjunct Faculty are expected to be responsible and responsive members of the music department. The successful applicant will have a proven record of teaching private lessons in cello and extensive performing experience. Bachelor's Degree required, Master of Music or Master of Arts preferred. Please send a cover letter, curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, student evaluations, and three letters of recommendation to Katherine FitzGibbon, Chair, Lewis & Clark College Department of Music, at klf@lclark.edu. Review of applications will begin immediately and continue until the position is filled. Lewis & Clark College is a private liberal arts college with 1900 undergraduates. An Equal Opportunity Employer, Lewis & Clark is committed to preparing students for leadership in an increasingly interdependent world, and affirms the educational benefits of diversity. (See <http://www.lclark.edu/dept/about/diversity.html>).