

US-China Relations

Future of Development or Decline?

Thomas Shoesmith

Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, Bureau of East Asian and Pacific Affairs. Foremost expert in the U.S. government in charge of U.S.-China relations.

"The Reagan Administration's Policy Towards China"
3:15 p.m., Tuesday, May 10

The Honorable Ji Chaozhu

Minister, Consular Office of the Embassy of the People's Republic of China. Leading authority on Chinese foreign policy towards the United States.

"China-U.S. Relations from the Chinese Perspective"
7:30 p.m., Tuesday, May 10

Zi Zhongyun

Professor, Beijing Institute of International Studies, Chinese Academy of Sciences. Author of numerous books and articles on U.S.-China relations.

Stephen Uhalley, Jr.

Director, Center for Asian and Pacific Studies, University of Hawaii. Leading authority on U.S.-China relations; author of many books and articles.

"Cultural and Social Aspects of U.S.-China Relations"
3:15 p.m., Wednesday, May 11

Neil Goldschmidt

Vice President, Nike Inc. Former secretary of transportation and mayor of Portland. Expert on U.S.-China trade relations.

Roger Sullivan

Executive Vice-President, National Council for U.S.-China Trade. Foremost expert on economic relations between the U.S. and China.

"Business and Economic Relations Between the U.S. and P.R.C."
7:30 p.m., Wednesday, May 11

King-yuh Chang

Director, Institute of International Relations, Taipei, Taiwan. Leading authority on U.S.-China-Taiwan issues; author of many books and articles.

Jae Kyu Park

Director, Institute for Far Eastern Studies, Kyungham University, Republic of Korea. Expert on Sino-Soviet-Japanese relations; author of numerous publications and editor of Asian Perspective.

"U.S., Taiwan, China, and the Pacific Community"
3:15 p.m., Thursday, May 12

Michel Oksenberg

Professor of Political Science, Center for Chinese Studies, University of Michigan. Former senior member of the National Security Council under the Carter Administration; instrumental in the normalization of relations with China.

"Summary of U.S.-China Relations from the Security Aspect"
7:30 p.m., Thursday, May 12

Templeton College Center

May 10-12

Lewis & Clark College
21st Annual International Affairs Symposium

Lewis & Clark College
Portland, Oregon 97219

Nonprofit Organization
U.S. Postage
PAID
Portland, Oregon
Permit No. 438

Acknowledgments:

James A. Gardner, president, Lewis & Clark College and Law School.
David Savage, acting dean of faculty.
Joseph M. Ha, symposium coordinator and chairman, International Affairs Department.
Richard Peck, associate professor, International Affairs Department.
Robert Mandel, associate professor, International Affairs Department.
Eugene R. Gregory, vice-president for institutional advancement.
Martha C. Gregory, director of special gifts.
Richard Sorenson, vice-president for student affairs.
Michael Ford, director of student activities.
Charles Charnquist, director of public information.
Barbara McDonald, secretary, Office for Institutional Advancement.
Karen A. Nairn, secretary, International Affairs Department.
Marc Miehler, chairman, International Affairs Symposium.
Gwendy Pelot, president, International Affairs Association.
Debbe Hamber, president, Associated Students of Lewis & Clark.
Student Academic Affairs Board.
Symposium Student Steering Committee: Al Palmer, Jessica Henricy, Michelle Glaser, Scott Herr, Ken Carter.

Special Recognition:

Mrs. James (Carol) Gardner.
Phillip H. Knight, president, Nike Inc.
Rick Rolfe, press secretary and chief foreign policy advisor to Senator Mark Hatfield.
Richard Nokes, editor emeritus, The Oregonian.
Oregon Committee for the Humanities.