

Announcing:

The 2018 Lewis & Clark College Fiction Prize

The Lewis & Clark Fiction Prize is a fiction award given to the single most outstanding work of fiction by a student entering the competition. Many of America's leading fiction writers won their first recognition through on-campus prizes.

This contest is open to all students with senior standing and currently enrolled full-time at Lewis & Clark College. This includes non-English majors. The judge will be an off-campus fiction writer. The winning fiction writer is awarded a cash prize of $100.

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES:

Submit up to five pages of fiction. PLEASE TYPE. Handwritten entries will not be accepted. Place two copies of your submission in the submission box by the reception desk on the fourth floor of Miller (the English Department) by 12PM on Wednesday, April 4, 2018. A completed coversheet must be stapled to one of these copies.

Your name should appear only on this cover sheet. YOUR NAME MAY NOT APPEAR ANYWHERE ON THE WORK SUBMITTED. Please note: Fiction will not be returned.

Name: _____

(You must currently have senior standing and be enrolled as a full-time student at Lewis & Clark College.)

E-mail: _____ Major: _____

Home Address: _____

(This should be an address that is valid through the summer.)

City: _____ State: _____ Zip: _____

Title of Piece(s):

---

---

Deadline: 12PM on Wednesday, April 4, 2018

Miller 4th floor / Debbie Richman – English Department