FR: Libby Davis, Associate Dean for Student Affairs

DT: August 29, 2017

RE: Process for Oregon Law Student Appearance Program (Court Certification)

Please carefully review the Law Student Appearance Program overview (pages 4-7). Then, complete the “Law Student Appearance Certification” form, found on page 2, and have your supervisor complete page 3. Deliver both forms, in hard copy, originals only (no email or faxed copies will be accepted) to the Student Affairs Office.

Your application will be processed immediately and you will be notified by the State Court Administrator in approximately 10 days regarding the status of your certification.

Important: Lewis & Clark Law School will receive a letter from the State Court Administrator in Salem confirming approval of your Law Student Appearance application. Until you receive that notification you are not considered certified. The Student Affairs Office will notify you when the official letter arrives. You should provide a copy of your confirmation letter to your supervising attorney. If you do not receive confirmation within 10 days, please contact my assistant, Liz Hobbs at lhobbs@lclark.edu or 503-768-6648.

If you change supervising attorneys, you must have the new supervising attorney complete the Attorney’s certification request portion of the certification papers. You do not need to complete the student form for a second time. Please turn in the new supervising attorney form to the Student Affairs Office so we may keep it on file. As soon as we have the form you will be eligible to do appearances with the new supervisor.

Rules Regulating Admission to Practice Law in Oregon

LAW STUDENT APPEARANCE PROGRAM

13.05 Purpose of Law Student Appearance Program

The bench and the bar are primarily responsible for providing competent legal services for all persons, including those unable to pay reasonable fees for these services. As one means to develop trial and appellate advocacy skills and to encourage law schools to provide clinical instruction in trial and appellate work, Rules 13.05 to 13.30 are adopted. Nothing contained in these rules shall affect the right of any person who is not admitted to the practice of law to do anything that the person might lawfully have done prior to the adoption of these rules.

13.10 Appearances and Activities of Eligible Law Student

(1) An eligible law student may appear before any court or before any administrative tribunal in this state in accordance with this rule. As used herein, "appear" or "appearance" means personal appearance before a court or an administrative tribunal.

(2) The law student shall at all times be subject to the supervision of a member of the Oregon State Bar, except as provided in subparagraph (3) of this rule.

(3) Subject to the client's approval as hereinafter provided, an eligible law student may appear for a client, with or without the supervising attorney being present, except as hereinafter provided. The extent of the law student's participation shall be determined by the supervising attorney, giving due consideration to the nature of the case, the ability and experience of the student and the complexity of the factual and legal issues involved.

(4) Except as provided for in subparagraph (5) of this rule, no law student shall appear without the supervising attorney in (a) any criminal case in which the defendant may be subject to a felony conviction, (b) any juvenile case where the act committed by the juvenile if committed by an adult would have been considered a felony or (c) in any commitment proceedings.

(5) Subject to the requirement of 13.20(2)(d) as to any law student eligible through 13.20(2), an eligible law student may appear in any civil or criminal matter, on behalf of the state or any other governmental body, with the written consent of the supervising attorney of the state agency or governmental body.

(6) No law student shall appear until the client, the supervising attorney and the judge of the court or the presiding officer of the tribunal have consented to such appearance. The supervising attorney shall be responsible for explaining to the client the nature and extent of the law student's participation and for obtaining the client's consent to such participation. The client's consent shall be in writing and filed with the court or tribunal and become part of the record of the case.

13.15 Other Activities of Eligible Law Student

(1) An eligible law student may engage in other activities, under the general supervision of a member of the bar but outside the personal presence of that attorney, including:

(a) Preparation of pleadings and other documents to be filed in any matter in which the student is eligible to appear; but such pleadings or documents must be signed by the supervising attorney;

(b) Preparation of briefs, abstracts and other documents to be filed in the appellate courts of this state; but such documents must be signed by the supervising attorney;

(c) Assistance to indigent inmates of correctional institutions or other persons convicted of crimes who request such assistance in preparing habeas corpus applications and supporting documents for post-conviction relief, except when the assignment of counsel in the matter is required by any constitutional provision, statute or rule of the Court; provided that if there is an attorney of record in the matter, all such assistance must be supervised both by the supervising attorney and the attorney of record, and all documents submitted to the court on behalf of such client must be signed by the attorney of record.

(2) Each document or pleading prepared under subparagraph (1) of this rule must contain the name of the eligible law student who has participated in drafting it. If the student participated in drafting only a portion of it that fact may be mentioned.

(3) An eligible law student may participate in oral argument in appellate courts, but only in the presence of the supervising attorney.

13.20 Requirements and Limitations

The certified law student's supervising attorney shall introduce the law student to the court or tribunal in which the student is to appear.
