

Lewis & Clark College
Division of Student Life
Mission Statement

The Lewis & Clark Student Life Division enhances the mission and the community values of the College by intentionally and collaboratively engaging with our students and colleagues in the active pursuit of intellectual and personal development. We embody and promote the pioneering spirit of the College by embracing authenticity, respect, exploration, reflection, diversity, and service.