COURSE DESCRIPTION

Applications of family systems approach to treatment of families in crisis and transition. Topics include issues such as substance abuse, domestic violence, sexual abuse, trauma and loss, poverty, and chronic illnesses. A portion of this course emphasizes clinical case conceptualization and treatment planning.

In particular, this course offers an overview of spirituality and religion in family therapy with an emphasis on learning about diverse faiths, traditions, and families. Participants will consider the role of spirituality and religion in therapy in understanding family dynamics, developing solutions to problems, and building on strengths and resilience.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

This course will help participants develop a working knowledge of:

1. The historical relationship between psychotherapy and religion,
2. Trends related to integrating religion/spirituality into practice in various mental health fields,
3. Ethical considerations in integrating spirituality/religion and psychotherapy,
4. Self-of-the-therapist relative to spirituality/religion,
5. Assessing spirituality/religion with clients,
6. Connection between spirituality/religion and resilience, change, strengths & solutions,
7. Practice integrating spirituality/religion into therapy, and
8. Diversity and religion/spirituality and collaboration with diverse religious communities/leaders.

ASSIGNMENTS

Participants are expected to complete the assigned readings and to synthesize and apply them in class. Classroom discussions are an opportunity to bring up questions about the assigned readings, deepen one’s understanding of the issues under study, and integrate course material with one’s own personal and professional experience.
Spiritual/Religious Self Assessment

Each student will complete one of several spiritual assessment tools as described in:

The student will bring his/her completed self-assessment for discussion on June 9th. In addition, each student will complete a 3-5 page reflection paper that will address the following questions:

1. When reflecting upon your own background, what connections do you make between spirituality/religion and resilience?
2. In critically examining your own beliefs and values, what religious/spiritual biases are most likely to affect your work? How will you address these in your professional development?
3. What steps will you take to ensure that you develop multicultural competence relative to spirituality and religion?

The assessment tool and paper are due on June 23rd.

20 points will be assigned to the assessment tool and each reflection question will be worth 10 points.

Family Interview

Each student will interview a family of his/her choice about their religious and/or spiritual practices and beliefs. Guiding questions for the interviews will be developed in class. Students will come to class on June 16th ready to discuss their completed interviews. To prepare for this discussion, each student will write a 5-7 page paper that describes the following:

1. Using pseudonyms identify the family members, and their religious/spiritual backgrounds, and describe how their religion/spirituality influence them as a family (e.g., dynamics, hierarchy, life decisions),
2. Describe your experience while completing this interview including challenges you encountered while talking about spirituality and religion with the family,
3. If you were to work with this family, what self-of-the-therapist issues would you most likely face? How would you handle these?

The completed interview and paper are due on June 16th.

20 points will be assigned to the completion of the interview as demonstrated by the class discussion, and each reflection question will be worth 10 points.
