

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS
(Students starting first year of Law School Fall 2010 and later)

The Law School expects each student to monitor his or her own curriculum to make sure graduation requirements are met. The Registrar's Office audits each student's transcript during the student's last year. In order not to get caught short in your last semester it is a good idea to check each year to make sure that you are taking the courses you need to graduate on time. The graduation requirements are listed below.

- I. Receive passing grades in all required courses:
 - Civil Procedure I & II
 - Contracts I & II
 - Legal Analysis and Writing I & II with Research (Beginning 2011-12, Research has its own class registration)
 - Property
 - Torts I
 - Criminal Procedure I
 - Constitutional Law I
 - Constitutional Law II
 - Legal Elements
- II. Complete the Professionalism requirement (Regulation and Ethics for Lawyers or Legal Clinic).
- III. Complete one seminar course. Courses designated as seminars have the word "seminar" in the title.
- IV. Complete 2 credits of Professional Skills. You may look up these classes on WebAdvisor "Search for Selection" screen using LPRS in the Course Type field or see the professional skill course listing..
- V. Complete two writing requirements: One Writing Intensive Experience (WIE) and one Capstone writing requirement. Writing requirement declarations must be submitted to the Registrar.
- VI. Complete a minimum of 90 semester hours of which 72 are graded and/or required. For purposes of this requirement, the ungraded credits of an externship shall be considered a graded course.
- VII. Complete the J.D. degree in no less than 24 months and no more than 84 months from the date of starting the program.
- VIII. Maintain a minimum yearly and cumulative G.P.A. of 2.00 or better as an upper division student to graduate.
- IX. Have all official transcripts on file for undergraduate and advanced degree studies.
- X. Clear all accounts with the Cashier.
- XI. Be approved for graduation by the faculty.
- XII. Be in good standing in matters of discipline.
